

K-LOVE serves me by informing me of local events that interest me. Losing this station would mean that there are no airwaves dedicated to contemporary christian music, leaving me with no musical enjoyment. This station serves the community by offering a positive alternative to listeners. We listen and support this station so that our children can hear lyrics that are not offensive or degrading.